

Training

The Training Program

The timeXtender training classes emphasize the key concepts of timeXtender. The training is conducted by our in-house consultants to ensure that you are trained by specialists who know all the ins and outs of the product. We encourage both partners and customers to sign up for the training.

The classes combine theory and hands-on assignments, so that you are able to explore the product yourself and ask questions. We offer two types of training: a 2-day timeXtender User, and a 1-day timeXtender Professional training.

User, 2-Day Class

timeXtender User - 2-Day class. This class provides a solid grounding in the basic skills needed to implement a BI solution with timeXtender. It is designed for users who have a basic knowledge of relational databases, cubes, dimensions, and pivot tables.

The training covers an entire project from start to finish, complete with data sources, staging database, data warehouse, and cubes. Upon completion of the training you will be able to do the following:

- Create and maintain projects
- Extract data from various data sources
- Extract data via Application Adapters
- Carry out data wash and data validation
- Enter data in a data warehouse
- Construct cubes with multiple dimensions, fact tables and calculated values
- Configure projects for authorized periodic completion.

EXTRACTION

Data sources,
Data selection,
Selection rules

DATA WAREHOUSING

Persistent storage,
Aggregated data,
Surrogate keys,
History

DATA CLEANSING

Lookup fields,
Custom fields,
Transformations,
Fixed values,
Validations

OLAP CUBES

Dimensions,
Cube and Measures

Professional, 1-Day Class

timeXtender Professional - 1-day class. This class builds on the concepts introduced in the timeXtender User training. It is designed for BI specialists who want to be able to implement complex solutions with timeXtender.

Before attending this class you should therefore have completed "timeXtender User" or have experience with implementing traditional BI solutions or solutions based on timeXtender. There is an optional certification test offered with this training. The Certification test takes 1½ hours and takes place immediately after the training.

The training focuses on extending and changing an existing project. Upon completion of the training, you will be able to do the following:

- Implement "incremental loads"
- Consolidate multiple data sources
- Optimize large data amounts and minimize completion time
- Implement history and surrogate keys in data warehouse
- Implement slowly changing dimensions
- "Tips & Tricks".
